United Way Worldwide President and CEO, Angela F. Williams, Visits Valdosta

Friday, October 18, the GVUW hosted our semi-annual Day of Caring. What a day!

We were privileged to have the President and CEO of United Way Worldwide, Angela F. Williams, and her amazing team join us.

Thank you to so many community members who gave their time to pack food boxes for Second Harvest of South Georgia, Inc.! Thanks to your assistance, 2 truckloads containing over 4,000 boxes of food will be distributed throughout South Georgia!

Our community has faced a devastating storm, and the Greater Valdosta United Way is grateful for the support of donors aiding our disaster relief efforts. We are witnessing the impact firsthand as we assist affected families across the region.

Each year, we run an annual campaign to support vital programs from our partner nonprofits. In light of recent challenges—including Hurricane Helene, Hurricane Idalia, and inflation—these organizations need your help more than ever. They provide essential services like respite care, childcare, health care, and emergency shelter.
