Agency Requirement Agreement

United Way requires that Member agencies abide by the following program deliverables for outcome measurement, including, but not limited to:

- A monthly/quarterly report detailing the services provided by UW funding and the number of individuals served.
- Additional reporting as necessary based on United Way staff review and evaluation of the program

In order to increase public awareness of the programs funded by United Way and to assist in raising more funding for the community, a Partner Agency receiving financial support from United Way is required to publicly recognize its relationship with United Way by:

1. Using the name of United Way and its standard logo and script as approved by United Way on:
 - a. Press Releases and media publicity
 - b. Annual Reports
 - c. Newsletters
 - d. Brochures
 - e. Stationery
 - f. Invitations and event materials
 - g. Talks to groups/clubs
 - h. T-shirts for events that feature sponsors
2. Prominently displaying the United Way name and logo on exteriors of building, doors or walls of the primary entrances to all facilities used by the Partner Agency.
3. Identifying themselves as a recipient of United Way funds in news releases, public service announcements, public affairs programs, community presentations and other events. Board members, staff, clients, consultants and the general public should be made aware of the relationship between the Partner Agency and United Way.
4. Recognizing United Way in the same manner that they would a corporate sponsor when and where appropriate.

By signing below, I, as Executive Director/CEO acknowledge that I have read, understand and agree to abide by the above Agency Requirements.

Admission Standards and Guidelines

In order to become or remain a United Way Partner Agency you must agree to:

Be incorporated, in compliance with state regulations, not-for-profit, and hold I.R.S. tax exempt status

Organizations receiving United Way dollars must be

- Properly registered with the Georgia Secretary of State Corporations Division as a corporation authorized to conduct business in the State of Georgia,
- Properly registered with the Georgia Secretary of State Securities and Business Regulation Division as a charitable organization, and
- A Not-for-profit organization that has been declared tax exempt by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (I.R.S.).

Offer human service programs

Greater Valdosta United Way defines human services programs as health, welfare, and/or youth programs. United Way funded organizations should meet the test of accessibility to clients served (e.g., frequency and times of operation).

Provide community service based on documented need

The organization should address itself to an identifiable current need, demand or problem in the community.

Comply with non-discrimination and ethics laws

Discrimination by race, creed, color, sex, age, handicap, veteran status or religion should be prohibited in programs, services, staffing and volunteer areas. A signed copy of a non-discrimination affidavit is required and reinforces compliance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972. Compliance with provisions of Sarbanes-Oxley applicable to nonprofit corporations (whistleblower protection and implementation of document retention and destruction policies) shall be demonstrated. The organization should have both ethics and diversity policies in place.

Have an active, rotating, volunteer leadership that represents the diverse elements of the community

The agency's board of directors should consist of volunteers who participate in the policy-making processes, represent the diverse elements of the community, and periodically rotate off the board and meet, at least, quarterly. Members of the volunteer structure should not receive financial remuneration from the program(s) or service(s) they oversee.

Have sound financial and program management

Demonstrated ability to manage the finances of the programs/services in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures (e.g. American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Guide) is critical to obtaining United Way support. The organization should provide a copy of its annual audit using an independent certified public accountant or accounting firm, where feasible. A determination should be made as to the convincing likelihood that the organization can or will meet its stated program objectives. In the event the applying organization has no previous history, work record, or financial data to submit, a special committee shall be appointed by the board of directors to confer with the officials of the corporation.

To conduct an intensive year-round program of interpretation and education in cooperation with the United Way; to identify itself in every practical manner as a recipient of U.W. support through the display of U.W. insignia on its property, offices, stationery, publications, etc., and through any other procedure which would be mutually beneficial in the promotion of the U.W. campaign; and to cooperate actively with the U.W. annual campaign.

Agree to adhere to Greater Valdosta United Way bylaws provisions governing member organizations

Greater Valdosta United Way maintains a set of bylaws with specific reference to member organizations. Organizations shall be given a copy of the bylaws and any updates and will be responsible for abiding by their provisions.

By signing below, I, as the Executive Director/CEO, agree that I understand and will abide by these statements.
